

Annisquam Sewing Circle
May 10, 2016

The meeting called to order at 1:30 p.m.

Minutes from the April Meeting were read.

Treasurer Nancy Martin reported that we have $11,500.84 in bank.

Martha Hooper reported that two active members have moved to associate member status. We now have three active member slots open. Associate membership is full.

There was no report for either Sunshine or Finance.

Stevie Neal reported that all Plant Sale posters are up around the city. Good Morning Gloucester has a poster, and the Gloucester Daily Times has published two announcements. The poster is the same one that Rosemarie Glen designed several years ago, just updated.

There is nothing new for Scholarship, except that checks with accompanying letters to this year's three applicants are about to be mailed.

Deb Bird reported that Nominating has a couple of positions yet to be filled.

Suzanne Brown reported that the new web pages are approved. Steve Harris, our Web liaison, has them and hopes to post them soon. Once they are posted, we can enter information and update them ourselves.

A sign-up sheet for the Plant Sale Bake Table was circulated by Kate Meader.

New Business

Gigs Cunningham wanted to let the person/people responsible for delivering May Baskets know that she has been receiving many "thank you" comments. Recipients assume the baskets are from Good Neighbors, which they are not.

Jaye Whittier announced that Britta Chadbourne's service will be held at the Village Church on May 21st at 4:00 p.m. Please try to attend, as her husband, Pete, would be very appreciative.

Connie Mason reported that we are using the last box of cookbooks. If anyone wants a copy before we run out, contact her.

Stevie Neal provided a Plant Sale update on behalf of Bonnie Angus, including staffing needs and clean up information.

The Annual Meeting will be held on June 7th. Bring your lunch; dessert is provided. Bring your auction item, too.

A motion made and approved to accept the secretary's report. Jaye Whitter also move we approve money for this year's scholarships. It was seconded and approved.

Another wonderful tea was hosted by Jill Lovejoy, Betsy Colby, Kate Meader and Pam Saylor.

The meeting was adjourned at 2:05 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Vicki Hartmann Bourneuf
