

Annisquam Sewing Circle Meeting
Minutes
Tuesday, June 6, 2017
Donna Caselden's House

The meeting was called to order.

Deb Bird introduced and welcomed new member Sandra Canniff.

Treasurer Nancy Martin reviewed sales from the Plant Sale, noting that Bonnie continues to bring in money from sales to her clients, which adds to our bottom line. She noted that regardless of what we do, the Plant Sale generates similar income within $100 from year to year. Our bank account has $11,418.88. A motion to accept the Treasurer's Report as presented was approved.

Sunshine Chair Judy Gustin was not in attendance; however, members reported that Joyce Novak, fell again and is back in rehab in Ipswich. Judy Friend is back home, doing well and in good spirits. Both love cards, calls and visitors. Kari Gunn is still not home, but recovering well. Holly Perry is having shoulder surgery in the coming week and would appreciate cards. Gigs Cunningham thanked everyone for pitching in with meals, which are greatly appreciated by those who need them.

Membership Chair Annie Sinkinson reported that we have room for one more member.

Scholarship Chair Carolyn Rogers reported that we have two scholarship applicants. Both are very deserving. Julia Johnson is a waitress and bartender at the yacht club and was accepted at George Washington University. She's done a lot of community service, works at Willow Rest and volunteers at Tree Top and The Open Door Food Pantry. The other is Josh Gabbe, who was accepted at Brandies University. He spends his summer working on writing and producing his music and has some of his music on the sound cloud. A motion to award a scholarship to both was approved by unanimous vote

Dona Shea, Nominating, introduced the 2017-2108 slate of officers and committee heads, which is unchanged with the exception of Emily Murphy, who will replace Judy Gustin as Corresponding Secretary & Sunshine, and Sue Willis, who will replace Mimi Emmons as Finance Committee Chair. The new slate was approved by unanimous vote.

Publicity Chair Deb Michel, and Website Liaison Suzanne Brown had nothing new to report.

Members were asked to think about possible dates and new ideas for next year's Plant Sale. Please collect tea cups. They were very popular and sold quickly. Discussion will continue at the September meeting.

The meeting was adjourned at 1:36 p.m. to the Annual Meeting Luncheon.

Respectfully Submitted
